HOW ABOUT THE "RAINY DAY?"

Are you thinking about the rainy day that is pretty sure to come some time? You have had success. Things have come pretty much as you have wanted them to come. You have gone on from one good position to another, and each time have had an increase in salary. You see only continued success before you and you feel secure, because you know the salary will come regularly each week.

Yes, but will it come regularly throughout the years that are to come? Are there no chances that your health may fail, that you may not always fit as well in your place as you do to-day, that the proprietorship of the concern may not change, that you may not lose your health or some physical ill-bital that may incapacitate you for further work?

All these things have been known to come to others and why not to you?

Every man owes to himself, every woman owes it to herself, especially if she be a business woman, to lay aside a little every week out of the salary as a nest egg to be used "when work fails," or when health fails, or something else happens to stop the income.

The past year should have taught most of us some lessons along this line. Many, no doubt, have been glad that they had laid away for a rainy day, while many regretted they had not done so. Off-seasons have come in the past, and will, in all probability, come again, and the good years is the time to make provisions for such a contingency. Start now, if you have not already done so.

If you are in business for yourself how do you know that you may always retain your present popularity? Even popularity is known to fail sometimes, you know.

A little money laid aside every week means ready money in time of need or when one wants to turn around for personal advantage.

Put a little money aside as you can, and when you have a few hundred dollars, put it into real estate that will return something on the investment. Land is getting scarce and those who secure a few acres now will find it profitable for some time in the future.

But whatever you do, think about the rainy day. Don't worry about it, but think about providing intelligently for it. Get ready in your golden years for the silver one that may inevitably come, so that when it comes time for you to slow up you can do so with dignity and with comfort. Don't think anyone else will take pleasure in providing the few necessities you will need when you are old, for they won't. No matter how good you may have been to them they will be chary of repaying the debt.

This is a poor season for anarchists. They burned some over in London a few days ago and now they have executed a dozen over in Japan. This is a new phase of the Anglo-Japan alliance

Foot Ball Club Social

A social gathering composed of the members and friends of the Cayley foot ball club met at the Khong Lung Restaurant last Thursday night. A first-class supper having been served and full justice having been done to it, Mr. Wm. Douglas was moved to the chair. The chairman briefly explained the three-fold object of the meeting—the reading of the secretary's report, the discussion of the coming season's plans and prospects, and last but not least in importance, the bringing together of the team and its supporters in a social capacity. He then called upon the secretary, Mr. Harry Bowen, to present his report. Mr. Bowen having shown the club to be in a sound financial position, gave a resume of the matches of last season, as follows: —won 1, lost 1, drawn 2—a very creditable record, all things considered.

Eloquent and encouraging speeches were delivered by Messrs F. F. MacDonald, L. Caspell, F.
Scrapp and West Ferris, all of whom were agreed that the successes of season 1910, commendable as they undoubtedly were, could be eclipsed in the future by close attention to practice and training.

An enthusiastic health having been drunk to His Majesty the King, the musical portion of the programme was entered upon, to which the following gentlemen contributed: Messrs Joe Hallett, F. F. MacDonald, H. Bowen, W.
Douglas, Laurie Jacques, Jack Cohen, A. Durham, Fred Scrapp.

The singing of "God Save the King" brought to a close a most happy and enjoyable time and the party dispersed in the "ree ama" ours, carrying with them the pleasing recollection of a good time well spent.

Worst Than Sunny Alberta

A tragic story comes from the district 70 miles north of Gowganda, Ont. where a trapper by the name of Wilson was devoured by wolves. His bride of four weeks almost perished from cold and fear.

Wilson's wife had insisted on accompanying him. On snowshoes they went north to Spawning Lake. They built a log hut One day when Wilson set out on the round of traps, which would take two days, but not returning, his wife grew anxious. A man named Dumont, a companion of Wilson's, several days later came across an empty tent in which utensils were found scattered about as when the trapper left, no sign of Wilson. Dumont organized a search party, and immediately commenced a return trip, making several miles without resting. The party found Mrs.
Wilson in a terrible condition.
She had made an effort to get to the settlement but without snowshoes and made only two miles in two days.

The snow was deep and she sank to the waist at every step.
She returned to the shack. Her hands and feet were terribly frozen and with difficulty she lighted a fire and kept alive. Her hair had turned white with the strain. Her food was almost gone and every night wolves howled about the door. Rescuers took her back to Thompson's and then to Gowganda. No trace of the husband could be found and friends are certain he fell a prey to wolves.

A social party and dance was held at the home of Mr. Ed. Kitchen on Monday night. Between 30 and 40 were present who report a very pleasant time.

A workman down in Ontario is suing a contracting firm for $5000 and $15.15 for wages. The fifteen cents is probably put in to cover the lawyer's fees.

The new teller at the Bank of Hamilton arrived in Cayley on Monday from the Battleford branch. Our late teller, Louis Morton, will remain at Carmanagay.

A number of our young people drove to High River on Monday evening to enjoy a few hours' skating on the rink. The night was cold and storm, but that didn't count much. They had a joyful time, anyway.

It is the intention of the C. P. R. management to install 2000 miles of telephones for operating its trains this year. The installation is now proceeding west of Winnipeg. It is not known whether it will reach Cayley this year or not.

The evening train from the north on Monday was one hour and a half late, owing to an overheated box on the engine, and when near Okotoks the engine had to be uncoupled, the train having to await another engine from High River.

The ladies' aid will meet in the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 2nd. It is hoped that every member will make an extra effort to be present as matters of importance will be brought before the meeting. Election of officers and a happy social time. Kindly be there.

Our new village council held its first meeting on Monday. Dr. Brown was elected chairman and J. C. Slater secretary-treasurer. With such a strong combination in our council we are looking for big things, gentlemen, during your term of office, and a very successful year in our village.

Our past councils have done well, and we are looking to you to carry on the good work.

After being lost for over two years Mr. David Scheller of Cayley has located one of his horses in Stavely. It is needless to say he was delighted to recover the animal again. This proves again the value of having a brand on your stock and keeping a correct record of the same.

There has been another grand shift on the Bank of Commerce staff. Mr. McKay has been transferred to Stavely and Mr. Leather to Nanton. Mr. Rhodes comes back to Macleod from Langham, Sask., and Mr. Hamilton is slated for transfer to some other point not yet announced. — Macleod Advertiser.

After a sojourn of some three or four months in this district Mr. and Mrs. John Cade on Monday returned to their former home in Kaladar, Ont. The past few weeks' severe weather, with its attendant high winds, did not seem to favorably impress Mr. and Mrs. Cade. We were sorry to see them return without giving the country a fair trial.

The enterprising editor and proprietor of the Macleod Advertiser, J. E. Pember, has issued a new and an additional publication to the Advertiser, entitled "Town Topics," a six column four page weekly paper, devoted to town topics. Town Topics seems to fit in and fill a long-felt want in that enterprising town. Here's success to your enterprise, Brer. Pember.

At the close of the practice of the tenor and bass members of the Choral Society last week, ice cream and cake was kindly supplied to the members by Mrs. B. G. Widdup. It is needless to say that this thoughtful and kindly action by Mrs. Widdup was thoroughly appreciated by the tenors and basses, and all with one accord agreed in saying "Encore!" in top "A" by the tenors and "Bass Fundo" by the bass.

The resignation of School Inspector Loucks has necessitated a shift in school inspectors being made by the Department of Education. Mr. Sauson, principal of Medicine Hat school, has been appointed inspector at High River. Jos. Morgan, inspector at Olds and formerly at Lethbridge, has been transferred to the Macleod inspectorate, succeeding J. W. Brown, who becomes inspector for the Medicine Hat district.

The barb wire gate is responsible for the loss of many horses and other stock. Lately it has also been responsible for the death of a farmer. Bert Hall, who lived southwest of Pawnee City, Nebraska, was at work on a bridge some distance from home. When quitting time came he jumped on his horse to go home, and while galloping along ran into the wire gate, was thrown from his horse and killed. He thought the gate open, but some one had closed it. For the sake of our stock, the looks of the farm, and also for ourselves, let us have gates that can be seen when closed.

It is said that two of Cayley's young ladies spent a day in Calgary recently and while riding on the crowded street car were obliged to stand. One of them, to steady herself, took hold of what she thought was the other's hand. They stood thus for some time, when, on looking down, she was holding the hand of a man passenger. Being greatly embarrassed, she exclaimed, "Oh, I've got the wrong hand!" Whereupon the man, with a smile, stretched forth the other hand, saying, "Here is the other one, Miss."

The Ladies Aid of Cayley

Methodist Church intend holding a Valentine Social on the evening of Feb. 14th, 8 p.m.

This will be a unique and pleasing function. Refreshments will be served. Come, and bring your friends to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker, just North of Cayley. Admission, 25c.; Children, 15c.

New Truancy Act

On Feb. 1st the new truancy act went into force. There are some important changes which will lead to considerable change in the methods and manner of life of many children. The age limit has been raised, the compulsory school term has been lengthened, and punishments for violations of the act are heavier and more stringent.

The old act read that education was compulsory up to 13 years of age, and that before that age children must attend school eight weeks out of each term, or 16 weeks every year.

This is now changed, the age limit is 14 years. Children must attend the entire school year, and punishments and fines will be heavier than heretofore.

The truant officer also will have to keep a record of all the work he does and report to the superintendent at the end of each school year. This was not compulsory under the old act.

To Guy D. Kaitling
SWEET VALLEY

So you're living on a homestead, Guy, In the wild and woolly West; I think you're very foolish, But you should know the best.
You must be very clever,
To write such poetry;
I fear you'll waste your talent
In Sweet Valley.

Dear Guy, I'm glad to hear you say You love the land you live in;
To love this brown prairie, It can't be called a sin.
I try to love it, too, Guy, But I'm lonely as can be;
I sometimes think I'd like to live In Sweet Valley.

Now, don't sit in your cabin, Guy, Until you feel so blue;
But come and see your neighbors In seventeen, twenty-two.
I think I've read the signs aright, And I'm interested be In one poor lonely bachelor
In Sweet Valley.
